

Junckers Exhibition

i-creo
design

JUNCKERS

During the end of 2007 we were asked to work for several world class companies including Junckers.

Our brief from them was to produce an exhibition stand that could utilise the blade showroom system that they already had. In addition to this they required us to produce a stand that had cutting edge design, space for clients to walk around, a plasma information point, a large storage area and a reception desk.

